

HERE ARE JUST SOME OF THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF SITES STUDENTS:

Write letters

Conduct surveys

Assemble displays

Create spreadsheets

Help write medical reports

Transport patients and deliver flowers

Prepare food for senior citizens

Renovate structures

Research history of community

Organize and label books for media center

Tutor children on the computer

Help animals recover from surgery

CONDUCT NATURE STUDIES

Organize local food cupboard

Tutor limited English proficiency students

Use chemistry and physics to operate air tanks

Help disabled children complete exercises on horses

Use science skills to analyze building safety

Assemble information to be mailed out to the public

Assist physically disabled and life skills students

Transcribe historical documents

Assist people with exercise equipment, health needs, and physical therapy

Tutor elementary, pre-school, and middle school children

Plan and teach music lessons for middle school kids

Calculate amount of medication to give animals

Sing, sew, bake, do crafts, and organize games for the elderly

Measure wood and building materials for historical preservation projects

SITES = SOCIAL INVOLVEMENT THROUGH EDUCATION AND SERVICE

NORTH OLMSTED HIGH SCHOOL'S SERVICE-LEARNING PROGRAM SINCE 1991